

Janna Wright

COME FULLY ALIVE & PLAY IN THE WIDE OPEN SPACES OF GRACE

Janna Wright is passionate about helping women exchange their “not enoughs” for joyful freedom in Christ!

A long-time story lover, Janna told her first one at age two (something about kittens and lost mittens) and has loved telling stories ever since. With passion, humor, and a hint of drama, Janna communicates Biblical truth in relatable, meaningful ways.

With a Master’s degree in speech and 20+ years of ministry experience, Janna has a heart for audiences of faith. She believes your story matters and longs to help Christians enjoy Jesus as they live their best story right now. Janna also creates a grace atmosphere wherever she goes, allowing people to feel seen and known and loved.

No stranger to “not enoughs” herself, Janna shares her own experience of escaping the Performance Driven Life and learning to actually rest in God’s love, so you come fully alive in your everyday Christianity and play in the wide open spaces of God’s grace.

Janna is the author of Grace Changes Everything: How to Be Enough in a Do-More World and also a regular contributor to the popular Christian blog, Crosswalk.com.

Janna would be delighted to inject creativity, inspiration, and unforgettable stories into your next event!

Most Requested Topics

- > Grace Changes Everything: The Secret to Being Enough in A Do-More World
- > AMAZE Accountability™: A Fresh Approach to Discipleship that Cultivates Authenticity and Strengthens Community from the Inside Out
- > When You Get Tired Enough: Reclaiming Rest, Peace, & Joy in Your Everyday Christianity
- > Enjoy the Adventure of Grace: Letting Go of Guilt and Shame to Rest in God's Radiant Love

"My biggest fear was that I wouldn't find a guest speaker that would work well with our group and one we could afford. God led me to an amazing speaker. Janna was the best possible fit for our ladies! I loved how personal she was. She created an intimate setting that made it safe for all of us to share and she returned the favor by sharing herself." -Eleia N, Women's Ministry Leader

"Janna is an inspiration and one amazing facilitator. We uncovered some intense stuff for me Friday night. Stories are a part of being here - be aware so you can pick the one you want to live. Kudos for bringing your message to the world . . . this is good, good, good stuff!!" -Workshop Attendee

Thank you, not only for an inspiring lesson, but also for taking time to connect with us. Sometimes us women just need to be "seen," and a little attention can go a long way to an unsure heart. I wasn't sure what God had planned for me when He told me to go to the retreat, and I'm still unpacking not only my clothes but everything that He revealed to me. -Ashleigh P, Pastor's Wife

@jannamwright

@jannamwright

@JannaWright